

I Am A Creator, Not A Competitor!

"You must get rid of the thought of competition.

You are to create, not to compete for what is already created.

You do not have to take anything away from any one.

You do not have to drive sharp bargains.

You do not have to cheat, or to take advantage.

You do not need to let any man work for you for less than he earns.

You do not have to covet the property of others, or to look at it with wishful eyes;

No man has anything, of which you cannot have the like, And that without taking what he has away from him.

You are to become a creator, not a competitor; you are going to get what you want, but in such a way that when you get it every other man will have more than he has now." ~

Wallace D. Wattles "The Science of Getting Rich"

We live in a society that promotes unhealthy competitive practices and philosophies. Many would say this is our nature, I ask, "Is this true." As a Christian, I believe that we were created by God. God is synonymous with limitless supply, abundance, and prosperity. Because I believe that God is our creator, and we were made in his image, then it would stand to reason that we have access to EVERYTHING we need. If we live from this principle, unhealthy competition would not exist. Rather than competing against one another, we would compete against ourselves to ensure that we are aspiring to live at our fullest potential.

As children of God, we inherited his ability to create. Creation begins in our thoughts. As spiritual beings, our words have the power to create whatever we command. As we take massive action on the words we have spoken, manifestation of our thoughts will occur. Based on this premise, we must carefully examine our belief systems, which produce our thoughts. Let me ask you...

What are your beliefs regarding your ability to create what you desire?

Are you fully aware that you are a spirit being, having a natural experience, with creative powers?

Do you believe that there is more than enough for everyone?

Do you believe that what is for you is for you?

I live my life knowing that I am uniquely designed by God to make a significant contribution to the world. And so are you! I believe that as I show up in the world, using my talents, gifts and abilities to make a difference, everything I need shall be supplied. As a Speaker/Trainer/Coach/ Minister I have no need to compete with anyone, because I know that God has selected a specific people for me to reach. Because I understand that everything is energy, I feed my mind and spirit the necessary things to create what I desire on a daily basis. Therefore, I spend my energies creating the things that are necessary to become the best I can be; fulfilling the vision for life and helping others to reach their fullest potential and live their purpose.

So, are you a creator or a competitor?

Wallace D. Wattles said, “Never look at the visible supply; look always at the limitless riches in formless substance, and KNOW that they are coming to you as fast as you can receive and use them. Nobody, by concerning the visible supply, can prevent you from getting what is yours."

Are You Doing What You Love?

“There is no greatness without a passion to be great, whether it’s the aspiration of an athlete or an artist, a scientist, a parent, or a businessperson.”

~ Anthony Robbins

IT'S TIME TO DO WHAT YOU LOVE!

Does this question sound familiar, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" I'm sure you were asked this question dozens of times during your youth. What was your response? When asked the question, without hesitation I would exclaim "I want to be a teacher!"

At 8 years old, I enjoyed tutoring and instructing my siblings who were 7, 6 and 5 years of age. I digress for a moment as I recall the looks and comments I have received over the years, when I share the ages of me and my siblings. We are stair steps—literally, 10-12 months apart. All I can say is that my parents were excited about creating a family :). So now, back to my story.

Playing teacher with my siblings was so exciting and rewarding. Watching their little faces light up when they answered a question correctly or came to understand a concept that once challenged them, gave me so much joy. I felt that I was making a difference. I remember tutoring students in math and rejoicing with them when they grasped and/or solved a math problem that they once thought was beyond their comprehension. For me, being a teacher was my calling.

We all had dreams of becoming something great. For you it may have been a teacher, fireman, lawyer, chef, journalist, veterinarian or a rock star, just to name a few. Well, how did you do? What are you doing now? Are you doing what you love? As we grow older, life becomes busier and things change. Jobs, marriages, children and businesses have a way of getting us off track. However, at some point we must get back on the path that will lead us to true fulfillment. Doing what you love brings true fulfillment. Are you aspiring to realize the dreams from your youth?

Earlier, I shared with you that at 8 years old I was convinced that I wanted to be a teacher. I truly believed it was my "calling." However, during a career fair in high school I became disappointed by the salary ranges for a teacher and decided to pursue business. I have spent the past 25 years in the business sector; and guess what...I AM A TEACHER! As a speaker, trainer and coach I am blessed to share information that motivates and inspires individuals to aspire to greatness. At the end of the day, this is called "teaching". I am grateful to God, that on a daily basis I am able to "teach" in some form. Thank God for the inventions of "blogging" and social media, because it has enabled me to widen my classroom.

As some of you may know, I have been fighting a bacterial infection over the past five weeks. During the past 5 weeks, I have lost my voice twice for a period of 3-4 days. For two weeks, I was confined to bed and completely drained of my energy. Although I was sick, I was appreciative for the gift. The gift to be still, quiet and reflective. As I was convalescing, I had quite a bit of time to think about my life and realized that I'm truly doing what I love...I am living my passion. What I realized is that it's time to take things to the next level. Going to the next level will require me to make some bold and life changing decisions, but I'm ready. So, I am excited about the next chapter of my life. Let me ask you, "What will the next chapter of your life entail?" Will it include you finally doing the things that you love?

While no job or business is perfect, the important thing is to enjoy it and learn from it. If you are unhappy in your current situation, take steps NOW to change it! You only live once. Somewhere out there is a job or business that is perfect for you. If you are already there, I applaud you. If not, realize that it may take some time to figure out what you really want to do, and even more time to actually get there. That's all right! Just make a decision and begin the journey. I can tell you from experience that finding and doing what you love is absolutely worth it, every step of the way. I am pursuing my purpose with passion; and there's no greater feeling!

Do what you love, and love what you do, whatever that may be. You'll be happier for it, trust me. It's the only way to truly ASPIRE TO GREATNESS!

Why Exist...When You Can Live...30 Days At A Time!

Join the A.S.P.I.R.E
Movement and Live!

Several months ago, I watched a TED Talk titled, "Try Something New for 30 Days," by Matt Cutts. During his talk, Matt shared with the audience that several years ago he felt like he was stuck in a rut and decided to try something new for 30 days. Matt makes a great point by saying, "I guarantee you the next 30 days are going to pass whether you like it or not, so why not think about something you have always wanted to try and give it a shot for the next 30 days."

Matt's video has inspired me to start a movement that will profoundly change people's lives and help them A.S.P.I.R.E. Let me ask you, "How do you eat an elephant?" Yes, I know you already know the answer, "one bite at a time." Why not apply the same concept to your life? So, I ask you, "How can you create the life you want and deserve?" Here's the answer: "30 days at a time."

A.S.P.I.R.E.: What Does It Mean?

If you are like me and Matt, you have fallen into a rut where you feel as if you are "existing" instead of "living." What do I mean by that? Well, let's do a quick exercise. Please read the statements below and check all those that apply to you.

1. You know there is greatness inside of you; but you haven't been able to unlock it.

2. Your life is not as fulfilling as you would like it to be.

4. You lack the drive, motivation and discipline to accomplish your goals.
5. You are in a relationship that is not growing and has lost its sizzle.
6. There are many things you would like to do, but find yourself procrastinating.
7. Your life lacks balance.
8. Your life has become one big routine, with minimal deviation.
9. Your life lacks spontaneity.
10. Your life is filled with more of the things you don't want and less of what you really want.
11. It has been awhile since you've tried something new and exciting.
12. You are not sure why you are here, why you were created. You desire to discover your divine purpose.
13. You know there's more, but you are not sure what it is or how to obtain it.
14. You have become stagnant...you are not growing spiritually, personally and/or professionally.
15. You want to utilize your gifts and talents to make a difference in the lives of others; but not sure where to start.

Summon The Courage To Dream Again!

"All men dream: but not equally. Those who dream by night in the dusty recesses of their minds wake up in the day to find it was vanity, but the dreamers of the day are dangerous men, for they may act their dreams with open eyes, to make it possible." ~ T.E. Lawrence

Like many of you, in my childhood I dreamed many dreams. Many of them were extraordinary and seemed impossible. The more my imagination grew, the bigger my dreams grew. As children, we had an amazing ability to look fear in the face and laugh at it. In fact, we dared fear to give us a run for our money. However, somewhere along the journey of dreaming big, LIFE HAPPENED!

When life happens, we don't dream as big. The gap between the impossible and possible grows wider and wider. For those of you who have stopped dreaming altogether, I have a message for you. "You must dream, because if you don't, you'll die." Not physically, but in every other way, you will cease to exist. Yes, I know to ask you to dream again or to dream big may be a scary proposition. You have dreamed many dreams and after 5, 10, 15 years they haven't come true. Perhaps you have stopped dreaming because you've completely given up hope that your dreams will ever come true. Well today, I would like to offer you one word of hope, "COURAGE." I pray that today you will summon the courage to dream again. Remember this, as long as you are still alive there is still time to realize your dreams.

I am happy to share with you that I have started dreaming big dreams. The older I get, the more I understand that my life doesn't belong to me, but to the people whom I've been called to serve. Furthermore, most of my dreams involve other people. My dreams continue to serve as insight into my purpose and brings clarity to the vision that God has given me. Hence, I can never stop dreaming and neither can you. For your dreams don't just benefit you, but they affect the lives of others.

To help you on your journey, I would like to share this powerful 3-minute video called "Dreams Are Whispers From the Soul." Many of your dreams are related to your purpose; the main reason for your existence. Because of this, your soul will never stop dreaming.

Summon the courage to dream again my friend and ASPIRE TO GREATNESS!
